

Biography- Breeze Briggs

Breeze earned her bachelor's degree in Chemistry and Chemistry Education from Montana State University. She then continued on to earn her PhD. from Purdue University in Inorganic Chemistry in 2010. After earning her PhD, she joined BASF through a rotational program giving her experience in product stewardship, pharmaceutical research and new business development before joining the pigments division in 2014. The BASF pigments business was acquired by Sun Chemical in 2021 where she has continued doing technical service for pigments for plastic.